Are you planning to surprise your significant other with a fancy romantic getaway? Or are you trying to spice up your marriage and impress the love of your life? Why not treat yourselves like royalty in the capital city of England—London? Although it's not as revered as romantic as Paris, it still definitely has its charisma. The city has plenty of romantic spots to discover—from the world's finest restaurant to exclusive boutiques.

Planning the perfect romantic trip can be quite stressful. Not sure where or how to start? Here are some ways to enjoy your sweet time in London:

1. MUSEUM DATE

Nothing shouts luxurious more than visiting museums in London. Take your partner to indulge in the richness of history and the stunning art and architecture inside. You can plan ahead by choosing a specific section of the museum and study what's displayed there. Impress your partner by spitting interesting facts regarding a certain art piece and the background story of its artist. If you're on a first date, this will be a great ice breaker!

Luckily for you, there are so many museums in London that you can choose from—and most of them are free. Luxury doesn't always equate to spending a lot of money, it's about the experience you leave for your date. To start, you can bring your partner to the British Museum which has a free pass for the main galleries. Want a quirkier one? Try the Freud Museum. Yes, a museum dedicated to the Austrian psychoanalyst is the way to go, if you want to be upfront on the first date or just to break the societal norms regarding museum dates.

2. ROMANTIC CANDLELIT DINNER

What's more romantic than a candlelit dinner with your sweetheart, sipping wine while enjoying the ambiance of the place? Not to mention the exquisite dishes you're about to enjoy while you're relishing the special moment with your partner—talk about heaven on earth.

If you're looking for a fancy restaurant, try Scott's which is one of the five oldest restaurants in London. Known for its glamorous interior design, the restaurant welcomed a lot of distinguished guests from movie stars to politicians. Opting for a more intimate and cozier place? Try Daphne's, a famed Kensington restaurant with Tuscan interior design, and a warm fireplace. It's also known for their hearty Italian classics with high-quality ingredients. Still not satisfied with these? Try checking out Mayfair restaurants for more options.

3. AFTERNOON TEA AND PASTRIES

Of course, you have to drink afternoon tea to fully enjoy the London experience with your partner. Usually, afternoon tea is best enjoyed with sweet pastries and delicacies like cakes, clotted cream, scones, macaroons, eclairs, and many others. If your partner has a sweet tooth, then you're in luck.

With almost 150 years of history, afternoon tea became a ritual which evolved into an art form. Undoubtedly, all those Instagrammable aesthetic and food arrangements made you want to try it with someone too. Looking for a place to enjoy a luxurious afternoon tea? Try Claridge's, London W1, which is famous for their chocolate choux along with their curated menu of teas. If you're looking for an affordable one, try Dominique Ansel Bakery. Don't forget to try their citrusy lemon verbena and the classic English breakfast.

4. CHOCOLATE SHOPS

Looking for souvenirs to bring home to your loved ones? Or simply indulging in chocolates with your partner on your London trip? Fret no more, London is home to many chocolatiers that started as pastry chefs at world-famous restaurants. Chocolates are known to boost serotonin which puts you in a good mood and increases sexual desire. This might help you commence more intimate moments with your partner.

Not sure where to shop? Try Rocco's Chocolate for artisanal chocolates. If you're craving more unusual flavors, try Melange's which is known for its chocolate infused with matcha and strawberry.

5. COUPLES' SPA

After an exhausting day touring the city, pamper yourself and relax with your significant other at the couple's spa treatments in London. Do you prefer a luxurious spa day? Indulge in three hours of bliss in Ushvani. The place features a self-contained space, a bed, and a plunge pool. Or do you prefer an aromatherapy massage? Why not try the spa services of Browns Hotel? You can book the Together treatment which includes a facial and a glass of champagne.

Final Thoughts

Whatever your love language is, spending quality time with your significant other is guaranteed to make your relationship last. But planning a trip can be exhausting and stressful as there are many things to consider, like your flight details, accommodations, etc. A detailed itinerary like this will help you impress the love of your life.

From treating them to luxurious vacation trips or even showing simple gestures like taking out the trash or washing the dinner plates, showing your love and appreciation to your significant other is crucial. Putting extra thought to important events like your anniversary and Valentine's Day will get them head over heels for you.
